How to realize the full value of personal property in an estate

Put it in the hands of the experts—at Parke-Bernet.

Then there will be no reason to wonder what that set of six Chinese Chippendale chairs may be worth. Or, what a Louis XIV commode should bring in today's French furniture market. Or what Soutine or Villon oils are commanding at the moment.

Parke-Bernet gives you not only unsurpassed expertise in art, antiques, artifacts, jewelry and rare books, but an established market of over 10,000 collectors, dealers and institutions. A unique combination . . . and good reason for you to expect full value for estate property—large consignments or small.

The auction concept is a proven means of estate disposal, but no one else offers the superb facilities of America's Leading Auction House—and thus the opportunity to realize the maximum value of estate property.

May we send you further information? Address your inquiry to John L. Marion, Vice President.
